This showact is an interactive modern, classical spectacle, where the audience is not only an observer but in the middle of the action!

18 musicians - right in the middle of the scene - starting step by step with an exciting interpretation of today's pop music with an orchestral timbre

The Performance:

an individually arranged medley:

- starting with a classical stringquartett
- continuing with an interpretation of a Cold Play song
- leading to the powerful song "I Gotta Feeling"/Black Eyed Peas
- ending with a spectacular final with 18 Musicians distributed throughout the whole location!

the show will finished with a special encore, when all the musicians will walk to the stage and perform a last short song from there!
